MAIN FEATURE

THE WIFE

When author Joe wins the Nobel Prize for literature he revels in the fame and glory. As his ego grows to match the media attention, the carefully established dynamic of his marriage is jeopardised and wife Joan's (Glen Close) mute frustration mounts inexorably to a satisfying crescendo. The film interweaves the story of the couple's youthful passion and ambition with a portrait of a long and complex marriage. Glen Close is magnificent, and this may be the best role in her impressive career! "Glen Close is unreadably brilliant." On Wed 17 Oct the film is followed by a live Q&A with the film's producer Piers Tempest.

★★★★★ Guardian

A VERY CARIBBEAN POT LEXDOX

Untold stories from the Windrush generation - a local documentary about local people but with historic dimensions. The film is followed by a panel discussion with people from The Pepper Pot Social Centre, where much of the film was shot.

PILI, special screening + live Q&A

Life in Tanzania for most means poverty, living with HIV and a lack of agency. This social realist film tells a powerful story of young mother Pili who has a chance to turn around her life. The film's director and producer join us after.

PBPB: Yazoo UPSTAIRS AT ERIC'S

Pitchblack Playback hosts another album listening session, in full, up loud and in the dark.
