MAIN FEATURE

I, TONYA

The great Allison Janney (Juno, The West Wing, The Girl on the Train) has been recognised at last with an Oscar for the magnificently awful LaVona, vicious mother of disgraced figure skater Tonya Harding (Margot Robbie, also excellent). This treatment is full of spark, style and good ol' fashioned vitriol, and is "one of those rare films that gets better as it continues." ★★★★★ Guardian

GET OUT

Its success in the recent awards provides an excuse to show this now! "Funny, scary, and thought-provoking, it seamlessly weaves its trenchant social critiques into a brilliantly effective and entertaining horror/comedy thrill ride." (RottenToms) ★★★★★ Guardian

NT Live: JULIUS CAESAR

Nicholas Hytner's promenade staging of Shakespeare's classic, starring Ben Wishaw and David Morrissey, "is a visceral, politically urgent tragedy." ★★★★★ Guardian
