MAIN FEATURE

CALL ME BY YOUR NAME

Precocious 17 year old Elio (Timothee Chalamet) falls under the unwitting spell of his father's charismatic research assistant (Armie Hammer) during a heady Italian summer. It's a powerful attraction that takes both by surprise, and this story of intimacy, love and, ultimately, letting go ends with a father/son speech which is bound to become a classic cinema moment. "Saturated with poetic languor and a deeply sophisticated sensuality." ★★★★★ Guardian

I AM NOT A WITCH

When young Shola is accused of being a witch, she is resettled in a fenced compound for witches and tethered like a goat. An entrepreneurial bureaucrat uses her to adjudicate in disputes, calling on her 'powers', but when she is asked to summon rain, the truth will out. Or not! "A magic realist fable set in present-day Zambia that has plenty to say about gender and superstition." ★★★★★ Time Out

LEXDOX

Television explorer/philosopher Bruce Parry filmed his travels into the interior, seeking to learn from primitive cultures, and he shares his findings with us in this mesmerising doc. Followed by a live Q&A.

LOVING VINCENT

Last screening of this beautiful, bonkers homage to Van Gogh.
