MAIN FEATURE

Lexi staff pick: SHOPLIFTERS

This hugely touching and surprising Japanese story about the nature of 'family' won the Palme d'Or for master Kore-eda at Cannes this year. "A satisfying and devastating gem."

★★★★★ Guardian "Charming, funny and very affecting." Time Out

SUSPIRIA

"Luca Guadagnino's re-imagining of Dario Argento's 1977 horror classic about a dance academy run by witches is a maddening mess - all that subtext - and also totally mesmerizing. Brava, Tilda Swinton!" Rolling Stone

FREE SOLO + satellite Q&A LEXDOX

This remarkable doc shadows climber Alex Honnold on his audacious attempt to scale the monumental face of El Capitan in Yosemite without ropes. The stakes are all or nothing. SPOILER ALERT: Honnold joins us for a Q&A after, along with the film makers.

A STAR IS BORN

"Wrings tears from its romance and thrills from a steadfast belief in old-fashioned, big-feeling cinema." NT Times We're loving this! ★★★★★

WIDOWS

"Steve McQueen delivers an outstanding heist thriller." ★★★★★

WILDIE

Paul Dano's story of the disintegration of a marriage is "poignant and very delicately observed." ★★★★★ Independent

BOHEMIAN RHAPSODY – final encore!
