MAIN FEATURE

BIRDS OF PASSAGE

From the makers of Embrace of the Serpent comes a tale of family, criminality, justice and revenge unlike anything else. Based on a true story and unfolding over the course of two decades, this shows how a tribe in Colombia entered the profitable marijuana business, dominating it for years before competing forces threatened the tribe's entire existence. "Combines magical realism with the epic sweep of 'The Godfather'."

★★★★ Mark Kermode

ROCKETMAN

"A riotous fact-meets-fiction swirl ... tied together by a barnstorming central performance from Taron Egerton."

★★★★ Mark Kermode

AMAZING GRACE

Aretha Franklin takes us to church:

"Without a doubt, one of the greatest music documentaries ever made." ★★★★★

Guardian

LFS: SAAWARIYA (2007)

Bollywood meets Hollywood in this sparkling romantic extravaganza based on a short story by Dostoyevsky, no less. Co-produced by Sony, this was an inspired attempt to bridge the two audiences. Curator Ryan Lanji provides a live intro + Film Notes.

Aperture Asia & Pacific Film Festival:

Aperture: A TOUCH OF ZEN + intro

Combining martial arts, a ghost story and Buddhist mythology, this wuxia classic paved the way for later martial arts delights.

Aperture: AUTUMN, AUTUMN + intro

This is the UK premiere of Woo-jin Jang's beautifully deft exploration of everyday human drama.

TOO LATE TO DIE YOUNG

A second chance to view this "gorgeously textured childhood memoir" of Chile in the 1990s which won the Leopard for Direction.

COMING SOON...

GLORIA BELL, from Fri 14 Jun

Julianne Moore and John Turturro grace this remake of the Chilean original, Gloria (2015)
