MAIN FEATURE

MY COUSIN RACHEL

Rachel Weisz plays enigmatic cousin Rachel, who arrives at her new home in Cornwall after the unexpected death abroad of her new husband, Ambrose. She is met there by Ambrose's ward, the impetuous and passionate Phillip (Sam Claflin), who has good cause to be suspicious of this mysterious widow. He is quickly captivated by the alluring Rachel though, and finds himself ignoring warnings from all around him. This classic mystery romance is all Gothic half-light, swishing petticoats, moody attraction and mutual suspicion! "It's pure pleasure to watch Weisz playing the elusive black widow of Daphne du Maurier's deliciously ambiguous novel." Variety

PUBLIC HOUSE

LEXDOX, £7/5

The story of a community who rallied round to save their beloved local pub, The Ivy House in Peckham. As told by video artist Sarah Turner, this is a strongly evocative and impressionistic look at the life of a pub, and the life in a pub. Director Turner joins us for a live Q&A afterwards.

NT Encore: PETER PAN

Recorded live, this exciting production of the classic from the Old Vic, Bristol. "Delightful, magic, unforgettable" ★★★★★ Guardian. "A rip-roaring adventure" ★★★★★ Time Out.
